Miami reveals itself as a diverse and complete sports stage, where professionals and fans can find their ideal place to train, compete or simply enjoy their favorite sport.

COPA AMÉRICA: A tournament with history and passion at the Hard Rock Stadium

Copa América, the oldest national team tournament in the world, has become synonymous with passion, technique, and the very essence of South American football. In 2024, this legendary championship will write a new chapter in its rich history by being hosted by the iconic Hard Rock Stadium in Miami, a city that vibrates to the rhythm of sport and multiculturalism.

Inaugurated in 1987 as “Joe Robbie Stadium”, the Hard Rock Stadium has had several names over the years, reflecting its constant evolution and adaptation. Today, with a colossal capacity for 65,300 fans, it stands as the ideal home to host two group stage matches and the Grand Final of Copa America. Not only for its magnitude, but also for its cutting-edge infrastructure, which includes a retractable roof that promises matches without weather interruptions and a special grass field, installed exclusively for the tournament, thus guaranteeing excellence in each match.

For true fans, there is nothing like experiencing the tournament live, and the Hard Rock Stadium becomes the coveted stage for this football spectacle. Therefore, the visit to Miami of thousands of fans from all over the continent gathered to enjoy the football party is expected.

Upon arrival, with diverse circumstances, the key is anticipation; Information about parking logistics and shared transportation is expected to be available as the event approaches. So make your plans, and secure your space like a strategist planning his master play.

So, fan, get ready to experience Copa America as it should be: with your heart beating to the rhythm of the ball and the Hard Rock Stadium as a witness to your passion for football.

Did you know?

The first edition of Copa America in 1916, was even before the FIFA World Cup.
